

Remedy sought (Please refer to NZDJA Discipline and Settlement of Disputes Regulations for available remedies)

Outline any relief or remedy (if any) being sought:

Fee Lodgement:

All complaints must be accompanied by the application fee of $150 which shall be lodged to the NZDJA bank account number 020404-0205264-25.

Date fee paid / /

Accompanying evidence:

Brief details of the evidence attached to support your complaint:

PLEASE NOTE:

- All complaints must be in writing and lodged within 30 days from the date when the events giving rise to the complaint occurred or within 30 days of the consequences of the alleged breach being discovered.
➤ If the incident that raised the complaint took place over 30 days ago, do you request that consideration is given to your complaint being accepted out of time? If so, please provide reasons for the late filing of the complaint, bearing in mind a late complaint will only be considered in exceptional circumstances.
➤ Complaints may be made by any financial member of the NZDJA, the NZKC (Dogs NZ) or any financial member of an overseas authority recognised by the NZKC. Please attach evidence of your eligibility to lay this complaint.
➤ The fee of $150 must accompany all complaints.
➤ All supporting documents and evidence must accompany this form.
➤ All correspondence, including any decision document issued by the Disputes Committee, must remain confidential to the parties concerned and must not be shared with any other party or made public. By signing this form, you agree to abide by this confidentiality requirement.
➤ Send to: The Secretary, NZ Dog Judges Assn via email: secretarynzdja@gmail.com (Please refer to the website for current address if posting)
➤ For further information refer to the NZDJA Discipline and Settlement of Disputes Regulations which are on the website www.nzdogjudge.com under member resources.

Signed by the complainant(s) (or a person authorised to sign on their behalf)

..... Date ...../...../.....

..... Date ...../...../.....

..... Date ...../...../.....